

flag right under the nose of the statue of liberty and, incidentally, in Yager's eye. The punch followed and a riot on the dock was narrowly averted when the Brazilian's four husky sons barely missed Yager in a hurried search.

—o—o— "MOTHER" JONES FREED—MAY STAY IN STRIKE ZONE

Denver, Col., March 16.—"Mother" Mary Jones, who has been a military prisoner at Trinidad, Col., for two months, was set free today. After having been brought to Denver from Trinidad under guard of two militiamen, the aged leader of the United Mine Workers, was released.

General John Chase, commanding the Colorado National Guard, asserted "Mother" Jones had been released at her own request. She made no promise to keep out of the strike zone.

She was met at the station here by General John Chase, commanding the Colorado militia and formally released.

"Mother" Jones was made a military prisoner in San Rafael Hospital, Trinidad, January 17, when she went there in defiance of the orders of General Chase that she must remain out of the strike zone.

General Chase called her a "dangerous agitator." He announced that she could go free whenever she requested her liberty and promised not to return to the strike zone. United Miners' leaders doubt that she requested release.

—o—o— BITS OF NEWS

Attorney Charles E. Erbsstein has been retained as counsel for Mrs. Harriet L. Janney, charged with kidnapping her grandchild, Virginia Ford, 3, the $1,000,000 baby. The child's father, W. H. Ford, Philadelphia, is the complainant.

100,000 more women expected to register tomorrow.

George Jackson, South Dakota,

jumped into ice-filled lagoon in Jackson Park to save $200 bulldog.

Raymond Ives, 6, believed kidnapped, brought home by colored maid.

E. P. Ream, 77-year-old artist, who was spirited away from home, located at 2326 Calumet av. Is seriously ill and in care of Miss Ada L. Stewart.

Pneumonia is alleged to have killed Edward Moore, John Vurros and D. Kennedy, who were given drink cure at Bridewell.

—o—o— MAYOR ON TRIAL FOR FRAUD— EX-CONVICT PROSECUTOR

Terre Haute, Ind., March 16.—Joseph Roach, ex-convict, made his first argument today in his attempt to send Mayor Donn Roberts to prison. Roach, convicted murderer, who was pardoned by Governor Marshall, now vice president of the United States, is special prosecutor in the cases of the state against Mayor Roberts, John Roper, Marx Meyers and Gerhardt Monninger, all charged with conspiracy to register voters falsely.

Roach, whose gratitude to the vice president is said to have caused his reform, has named his baby Thomas, after Vice President Marshall, and has sworn to reform himself and to "clean up Terre Haute."

He succeeded in gaining a conviction against William Huffman, alleged associate of the present defendants, on the charge of election frauds. Huffman has been sentenced to prison.

Roach has declared that he will also convict Roberts. Roach is a powerful man physically, and was brought up among the bad element in Terre Haute. He is said to have succeeded in winning the support of the non-partisan voters' league, which is asking for $5,000 in contributions immediately for aid of the prosecution.

—o—o— WANTED TO KNOW

"That young Mr. Squeeze I met last night had a good head on his shoulders."

"Whose was it?"—N. Y. World.